Travel by Car

It is about a 35 km drive from Rome to Monterotondo. Depending upon the time of the day, it can take between 45 minutes [non-rush hour] up to 1,5 hours. Driving from Rome, take the via Salaria [SS 4] to Monterotondo-Scalo. Drive through Scalo, staying on the via Salaria. Follow the signs to the Zona Industriale towards the end of Scalo. There is a Ford car showroom on the corner at the left hand side. Turn into via Leonardo da Vinci and follow the road to the very end, then turn right for via Ramarini. The campus is on your immediate left.
